“ My sympathy and prayers to each of the Labardees and extended family, especially to my St. Jude classmate, Greg, and his family. I'd know your mother anywhere by her wonderful smile! We are in the midst of a retreat where I minister in eastern Pennsylvania and our Mass will be going on toward the end of the funeral for your mom. I will remember her very specially at that time and raise up her name in our intercessions. May you all feel her presence and motherly comfort day after day. With the loss of your mom, you are now the "oldest generation" --- live hers and your dad's legacy with pride and enthusiasm! Blessings to each and all of you!

“ God Bless the LaBardee family! Praying for you as you honor Virginia's life. A special note to daughter, Lin. I was so fond of your Mother and proud that God allowed our paths to cross. Virginia was always gracious and kind even when she wasn't feeling well. I appreciate the memories and still wear the "crown" she wrote for me. It was an honor to read her obituary and very obvious that Jesus shined through her life. "Go Rest High on That Mountain", Virginia. Sherrie Bush

“ Dear Beloved Children of Ginny and Siblings of Ginny, Know that I am holding you all in special prayer during these days of grieving. I was blessed to have had Ginny as a beloved cousin in my life and remember many times visiting her at her Continental Blvd. home when you were all growing up. She was so loving to her mom, my godmother, Aunt Agnes, and gave her such special tender care in her last years as well as her special care of Aunt Mary and Aunt Rosie. She loved to talk about spiritual things and loved Cursillo. I would come in person if I were not so far away in Ky. God bless you all and know I hold you each tenderly.
