“ It has been many years since I have seen my cousin Bill as I moved to North Carolina twenty three years ago with my wife and we have been consumed with life raising six children and being Grandparents. Unfortunately, we sometimes lose contact with loved ones, but that doesn't take away from the fact that we still love them. Though I have thought of Bill many times, I have had no contact and was unaware of his long battle. I just found out this evening of his passing, and to me, this information came somewhat suddenly. It stopped me in my tracks and my heart sank. We have enjoyed North Carolina, but sometimes it is hard to hear news of a family member passing and being so far away. I remember as a young boy, playing nighttime hide and seek and playing softball games at Bill's house. At that time it was my Aunt Bobbi and Uncle Leo's house. Those are fond memories with my cousins. Even though contact was far and few between, there is a void in my heart for having lost Bill. My love and my family's love go out so sincerely to my cousin Bill and family. We ask that God would receive Bill and elevate his spirit and watch over his family.

*With love,

“ I met Bill at Flower Hospital, we were both going through our cancer treatment. We struck up a friendship immediately. We shared the journey together for awhile. Familiar faces made us able to cope. When I saw his obituary today my emotions got the best of me, I lost a friend. Pease to Bill and peace to his family and friends.
