“ My sincere sympathies to all of Wilma's children, grandchildren and family. Wilma and I have been friends since college and sisters in Alpha Omicron Pi. We shared so many good times as Rocket football and Ladies Basketball fans as well as tennis and cross country skiing. Most of all, I have lost a cherished friend. Rest in Peace. Wilma

“ My condolences to Wilma's family. Wilma and I played tennis weekly at Laurel Hill Swim and Tennis Club with a group of 12 fun gals for years. We were in the same German Club at Libbey High School and often brushed up on our German when we got together after tennis. We shared stories about families in Germany, as my folks both came from Germany. Many fond memories.

“ Dear Marcia, Jim, Jenni, Katie and the Lupe Family, so sorry to hear about your Mom, she was always so kind, and always had a smile. I also had her as a teacher, and I loved to see her outfits, as she was quite stylish. My main memory of your Mom though was, of her and Mr. Lupe coming and going playing Tennis. They were quite a lovely couple, and as we talked Dear, they are together again...may your Mom rest in Peace, love Sharon, Dan and Family
